

QCOAL FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP

DO YOU KNOW SOMEONE PLANNING TO STUDY AT JCU NEXT YEAR?

Applications Close 16 January, 2026

Established in 2015, the QCoal Foundation Scholarship offers regional and remote students financial support for their studies at James Cook University (JCU).

Each year, a talented student from a regional or remote community is awarded $30,000 over 3 years to overcome the economic challenges associated with attending university.

More information on eligibility and how to apply is available at www.qcoalfoundation.org. Applicants will be assessed on their aspirations to work in regional and remote communities after graduation, as well as academic performance, extra-curricular achievements and community involvement.

www.qcoalfoundation.org

Building resilient regional and remote Queensland communities